DETAILED ACTION

Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

1. A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after final rejection. Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, the finality of the previous Office action has been withdrawn pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 4/2/2009 has been entered.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments, see Remarks, filed 4/2/2009, with respect to claims 1-22 have been fully considered and are persuasive. The rejection of claims 1-22 has been withdrawn.

Response to Amendment

3. Claims 1-3, 5, 8, 9, 16 and 17 have been amended.
4. Claims 1-22 are pending.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 1-22 are allowed over the prior art for the reasons outlined by the Applicant in the Remarks of 4/2/2009. Further search by the Examiner turned the Aversano et al. paper directed to document management. The Aversano paper is concerned with the creation and management of electronic documents in the modern organization, it is silent as to the details of the dynamic customization afforded to the user in the creation and management of the electronic document and the interaction of the various databases with the user and the electronic document.

Conclusion

6. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure: "Implementing Oracle Workflow" by Mathieson and "Integrating Document and Workflow Management Tools using XML and Web Technologies: a Case Study" by Aversano et al. Both references are directed to electronic document creation and management.
